

CO.AS.IT. (SA) Volunteer Awards for the Italian Community Guidelines

Young Volunteer Award – volunteers under 40 years of age whose volunteer contributions and achievements have made a significant difference to the Italian community in South Australia.

Volunteer Award – volunteers 40 years of age and over whose volunteer contributions and achievements have made a significant difference to the Italian community in South Australia.

The volunteer doesn't need to be from an Italian background to be nominated as long as the volunteer work benefits Italian people in the community for example older Italian people, Italian people with disabilities and their carers. Some examples may be preparing or delivering meals, transport support, community radio, reading of Italian books onto tape for the vision impaired, friendly visiting of older Italian people in aged care facilities, administration and boards of management/committees. Judges will be considering the generosity of time, resources and energy and how the volunteer works with the community to make a difference, while successfully combining significant volunteer efforts with other responsibilities and enjoying what they do.

The volunteer awards recognise individuals who have given generously to the Italian community. While this award is given to individuals, CO.AS.IT. (SA) recognises that many people give generously of their time and these individuals are representative of the volunteer community.

The winners will be presented with a certificate and prize at the Volunteer Recognition Event on the 3rd May 2018. A profile of the winners will be published in the CO.AS.IT. (SA) newsletter and on the website www.coasitsa.org.au.

Simply fill in the nomination form choosing one of the two categories and mail or hand deliver to CO.AS.IT. (SA) 262a Carrington Street, Adelaide SA 5000, Attention: Ada Giglio. Alternatively, scan the document and email it to admin@coasitsa.org.au. All nominations must be signed and submitted with the nominee's consent. Previous volunteers who were nominated may be nominated again for this round except those who have previously won the award.

Late nominations will not be accepted. Closing date for nominations is 5pm Thursday 12th April 2018. For more information please contact us on 8223 3311 or admin@coasitsa.org.au
